Anamed Malawi seeks to bring spiritual, social, economic and ecological transformation to the lives in primarily rural communities in Malawi through mentoring, training on natural medicine and nutrition. Contribute to our team in promoting natural medicine through our outlet Shop along the M1. Engage with customers and enjoy a great opportunity to learn about Malawi culture, the so called “warm heart of ‘Africa”.

Anamed Malawi is based in the central region on an Agricultural Trainings Farm where young people can learn all about farming but the main focus is on transformation through the spirit of Christ

If you are willing to join us you can experience:

- Hands-on training in natural medicine and product development.
- A chance to contribute to community health and wellness.
- Opportunities to work with experienced trainers and expand your skill set.
